To Whom It May Concern:

The 2009 Easter Passion Play is on the horizon and Andrews University would love to involve you in this life-changing experience. Each year, this event brings thousands of people to the campus of Andrews University, located in Berrien Springs, Mich. The first Easter Passion Play took place in 2003 when Ron Whitehead, executive director of the Center for Youth Evangelism at Andrews University, was impressed to create a play about Christ's life and mission at Andrews. Pastor Whitehead had enjoyed many other passion plays around the world and he wanted to bring such an event to the area.

Those who attend the play take part in an interactive indoor/outdoor experience. The walk-through event tells the story of Christ's time on earth and is displayed in a tangible, relatable way—a way that makes Christ's passion for the human race visible to those in attendance. Viewers can see, smell, hear and even taste the story as they walk with the characters of the Bible.

Telling the story of the Passion of Christ is a community ministry. I strongly believe that members of the community, like you, help make this event a reality. With your help, we can spread the gospel to all those both within and outside our community.

The 2009 Easter Passion Play will be held on Saturday, April 11, with half-hour rotations beginning at 9 a.m. and ending at 6 p.m. This packet contains all the information you need to spread the word and get involved. We encourage you to join us in this opportunity to retell the gospel in a dynamic way! Will you help?

Sincerely,

Richard Parke
